

Comparing Localities - Rural and Urban Japan

Watch the video all about rural and urban areas in Japan and fill in the blanks below.

1. The big cities are connected by _____,
but they don't stop in _____.

2. A lot of Japan is covered with _____
_____.

3. People grow crops in the countryside, such as _____.

People in Japan eat _____ every day!

4. You can find lots of _____ in both the city and countryside. In winter, you can buy _____ from them, too.

5. There are thousands of _____ across Japan.

They are important places of worship.

Comparing Localities - Rural and Urban Japan (ANSWERS)

Watch the video all about rural and urban areas in Japan and fill in the blanks below.

1. The big cities are connected by bullet trains / shinkansen, but they don't stop in small towns.

2. A lot of Japan is covered with forests and mountains.

3. People grow crops in the countryside, such as rice. People in Japan eat rice every day!

4. You can find lots of vending machines in both the city and countryside.

In winter, you can buy hot drinks from them, too.

5. There are thousands of shrines across Japan. They are important places of worship.